

11:04

← Question 1 / 5

Identify this iconic Roman amphitheater located in central Tunisia.

El Jem Amphitheater

Carthage

Dougga

Sbeitla

✓ Correct! +10 points

The El Jem Amphitheater is one of the best-preserved Roman ruins in the world and could seat up to 35,000 spectators.

NEXT QUESTION

11:05

← Question 2 / 5

Which famous ancient city features these massive Antonine Baths?

Uthina

Carthage

Bulla Regia

Mactaris

✗ Incorrect!

Correct answer: Carthage

The Baths of Antoninus in Carthage were the largest thermal baths built on African soil.

NEXT QUESTION

11:05

← Question 3 / 5

Name this site known for its stunning Capitol and theater overlooking the valley.

Sbeitla

Ammaedara

Dougga

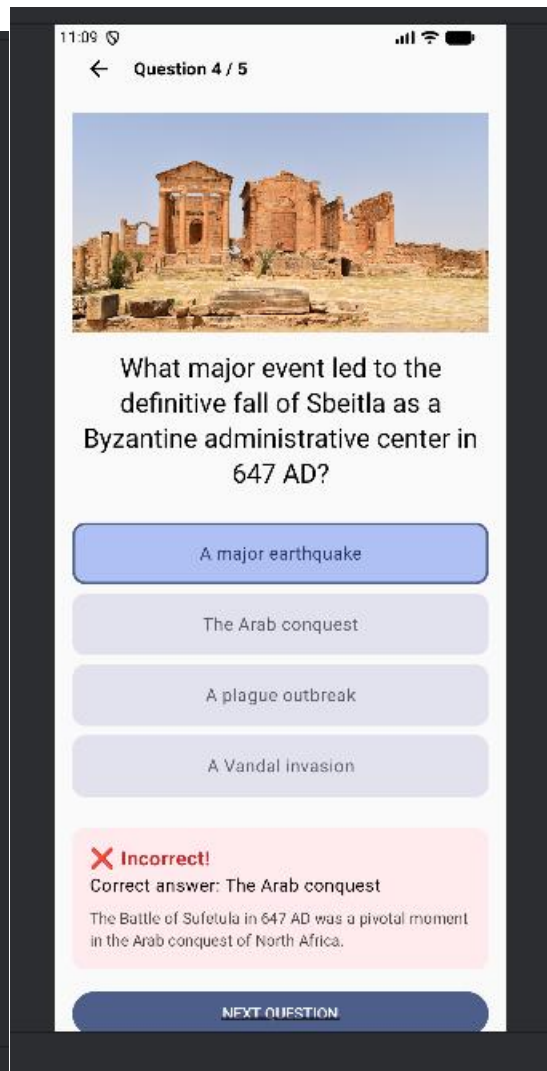

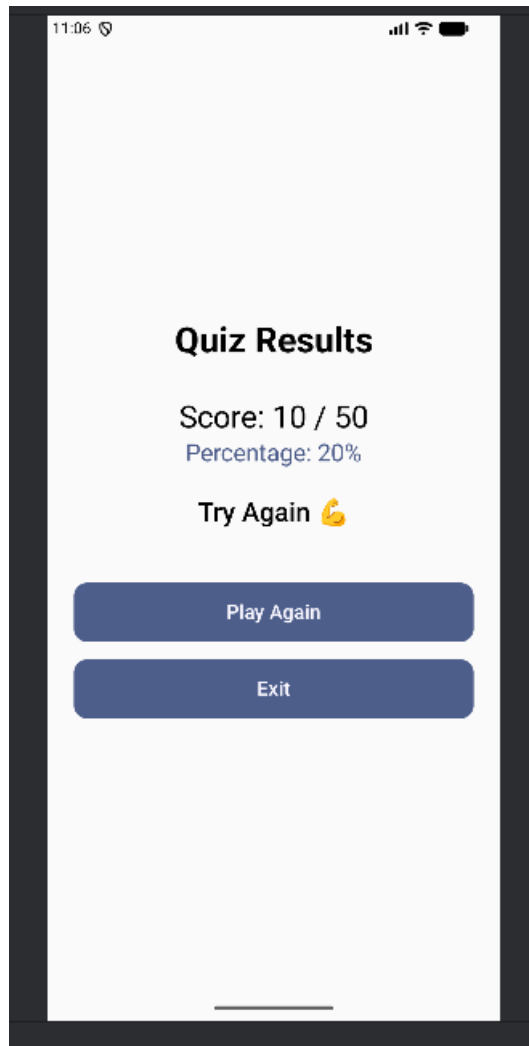

Thuburbo Majus

✗ Incorrect!

Correct answer: Dougga

Dougga (Thugga) is a UNESCO World Heritage site and is considered the best-preserved Roman small town in North Africa.

NEXT QUESTION

11:09

← Question 5 / 5

Bulla Regia was a royal residence for which Numidian king before the Roman period?

Massinissa

Jugurtha

Hiempsal

Juba I

✗ Incorrect!

Correct answer: Massinissa

King Massinissa established Bulla Regia as one of his royal residences during the Numidian Kingdom's height.

FINISH QUIZ

11:09

← Question 1 / 5

In which century was the construction of the massive El Jem Amphitheater initiated?

1st Century AD

2nd Century AD

3rd Century AD

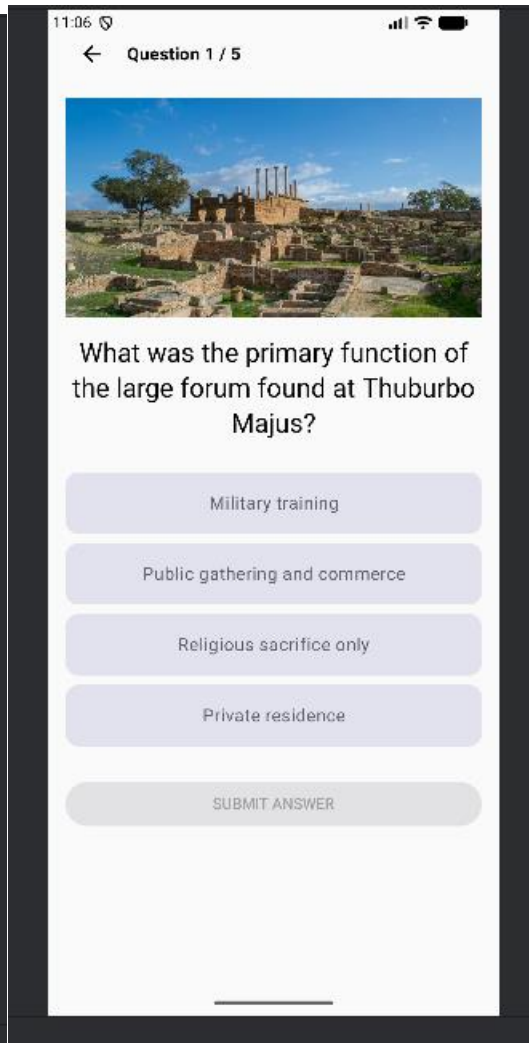

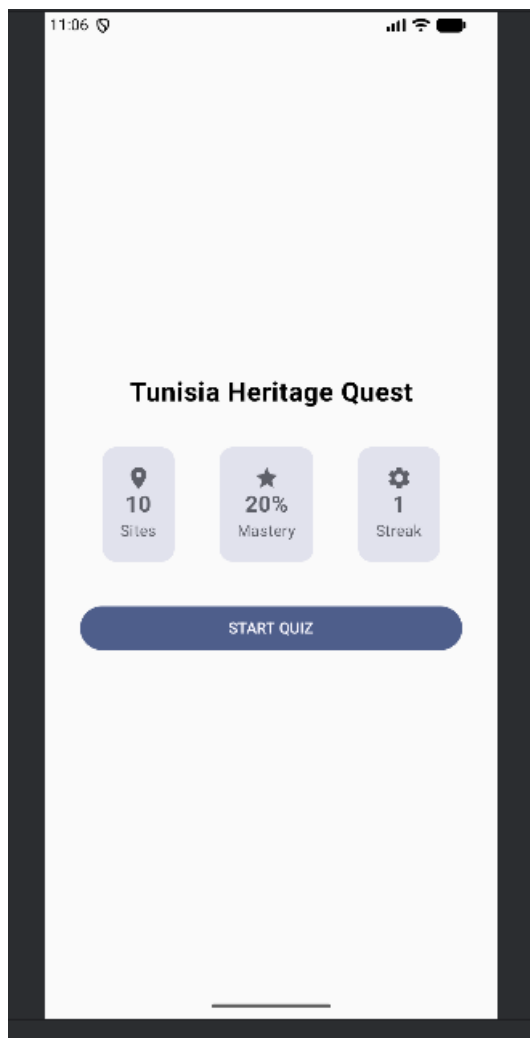

4th Century AD

✗ Incorrect!

Correct answer: 3rd Century AD

Construction began around 238 AD, under the proconsul Gordian, who later briefly became Emperor.

NEXT QUESTION

11:07 Question 2 / 5

The amphitheater at Uthina was partially built into a hill. Why was this common in Roman engineering?

For better acoustics

To save on construction costs

To hide from enemies

For religious reasons

✓ Correct! +10 points

Utilizing natural slopes significantly reduced the amount of masonry required to build the seating areas (cavea).

NEXT QUESTION

11:07 Question 3 / 5

Mactaris features a notable 'Schola Juventutis'. What was the primary purpose of this institution?

A training center for young men

A public bathhouse

A grain storage facility

A temple for the elderly

✗ Incorrect!

Correct answer: A training center for young men

The Schola Juventutis was an institution for the civic and military training of Roman youth.

NEXT QUESTION

11:08

← Question 5 / 5

Ammaedara was home to the Legio III Augusta. What does this indicate about its strategic role?

It was a luxury resort

It was a vital military headquarters

It was a small farming village

It was a port city

✓ Correct! +10 points

Ammaedara served as a key strategic base for the Roman legion to control the region's frontiers and trade routes.

FINISH QUIZ